

HISTORIC AMERICAN ENGINEERING RECORD

INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS

U.S. NAVAL BASE, PEARL HARBOR, SEAPLANE RUNWAYS

HAER HI-57

-1933 TYPE

(Seaplane Ramps 1, 2, and 3)

(U.S. Naval Base, Pearl Harbor, Naval Air Station Ford Island, Facility Nos. S357, S358 & S359)

South shore of Ford Island, near Lexington Boulevard

Pearl Harbor

Honolulu County

Hawaii

INDEX TO BLACK AND WHITE PHOTOGRAPHS

David Franzen, photographer, December 2000

- | | |
|---------|---|
| HI-57-1 | View from Facility No. S357 (Seaplane Ramp 1) toward Facility No. S358 (Seaplane Ramp 2) with strafing marks in foreground. Foundation of demolished Facility No. 38 is in background on right |
| HI-57-2 | View from corner of Facility No. S358 (Seaplane Ramp 2), looking toward facility No. S357 (Seaplane Ramp 1). Foreground shows openings for service access to subsurface oil and water lines. Facility No. 39 is in background on left, with foundation of demolished Facility No. 38 in front of that |
| HI-57-3 | View from corner of Facility Nos. S358 and S359 (Seaplane Ramps 2 and 3), looking down Facility No. S359 (Seaplane Ramp 3) towards entrance channel |
| HI-57-4 | Detail at water's edge of Facility No. S359 (Seaplane Ramp 3), showing broken concrete |
| HI-57-5 | View across Facility No. S359 (Seaplane Ramp 3), looking toward shipyard |
| HI-57-6 | View of Facility No. S359 (Seaplane Ramp 3), with Koolau Mountain Range in background |